

Acknowledgement and Assumption of Risks and Release of Liability for participation in activities with

Human Becoming and/or Wilder Herbertson

1. Background

Wilder Herbertson has been teaching ancestral skills practices since 2021. Through Human Becoming, they offer folks opportunities to engage experiences including (but not limited to): identifying and/or foraging for mushrooms and/or plants, fiber arts, making salves and tinctures, wild fermentation, and coaching related to nutrition and one's relationship with food. While they will make every effort that those participating have a safe and fulfilling experience, some risks are inherent in engaging with these activities.

2. Client Agreements Regarding Assumption of Risk and Liability

- The undersigned (hereafter referred to as "Client") agrees that by engaging in any compensated or uncompensated activity provided by Human Becoming, Wilder Herbertson, or any agents of or representatives of either aforementioned party (hereafter referred to as "Human Becoming"), some level of risk may be present.
- Client furthermore agrees to engage in activities with Human Becoming with the express understanding that Client accepts full liability for any risk to themselves and/or any minors in their care. Client indemnifies and holds Human Becoming harmless for any risk, injury, sickness (including exposure to/contraction of COVID-19), or any other physical, mental, or emotional distress.
- Client furthermore understands that this release is relevant to all claims of liability resulting from the risks associated with the activities in which Client is agreeing to participate.

3. Responsibilities of Client and Human Becoming

Client hereby commits to:

- Use their own best judgment regarding their physical safety and health in all respects (e.g. walking in the forest off-trail, consuming wild mushrooms, etc.)
- Provide Human Becoming with any relevant health conditions/allergies and/or access needs
- Unless otherwise discussed, to acquire any and all permits, parking passes, and/or other permissions/authorizations as required by sites visited during the course of their participation in activities with Human Becoming.

Human Becoming hereby commits to:

- Align their operations in a way that attempts to provide Client with a safe and fulfilling experience
- Consider and communicate their best understanding of any risks associated with activities
- Share information with Client in a timely manner regarding any and all permits, parking passes, and/or other permissions/authorizations as required by specific sites to be visited during the course of activities with Client.

4. Client Understandings

By providing their initials below, Client indicates their understanding and agreement that they:

_____ Have read this entire document, have had a chance to resolve any questions to their satisfaction, and fully understand and agree to the contents herein.

_____ Understand that both Client and Human Becoming shall consider this agreement valid whether the signatures below are provided digitally or physically

Printed Name of Client

Signature

Date